COUNTDOWN TO KICK-OFF

The end of summer may be nearing for some, but for United Way staff and volunteers, the heat is really turning up as Campaign 2014 gets set to kick-off in four weeks.

2014 Campaign Chair Carrie Batt and her Campaign Cabinet of community leaders are working hard behind the scenes to make sure everything is in place by Friday September 12, when we officially cut the ribbon on KFL&A’s largest annual fundraising campaign.

We’re kicking things off in our traditional fashion, over a delicious hot breakfast at the Ambassador Hotel & Conference Resort, and we want you to be part of the excitement.

Tickets are just $15 per person, thanks to our sponsors: Canadian Tire, Ring Wireless by Tyroute and Ambassador Hotel & Conference Resort.

To order tickets, please visit http://2014-campaign-kick-off.eventbrite.ca

For more information, please call 613-542-2674 or email campaign@unitedwaykfla.ca
PEER TWO

If you missed our first ECC Peer Learning Session of the year earlier this spring, you missed out on a chance to share your campaign success secrets and learn a few new tricks from other successful ECCs. The good news is you’ve we’re doing it all over again on August 27th from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Whether you’re a new ECC just learning the ropes or a seasoned pro looking for a few new additions to your bag of tricks, we guarantee that you’ll learn something new and valuable, and you may even want to share a success or two. You can register online for this free session.

For more information call 613-542-2674 or email campaign@unitedwaykfla.ca

THINGS ARE LOOKING UP

We’ll all be looking up at the end of September when the United Way lamppost banners fly high above the streets of Downtown Kingston. Special thanks to our friends at the Downtown Kingston BIA for creating this fundraising and awareness opportunity, and thanks to these businesses and organizations who decided to ride shotgun with us as we take to the friendly skies:

• Empire Life
• KPMG
• Providence Care
• TD Canada Trust
• Home Base Housing
• Ontario Power Generation
• RBC
• K3C Community Counselling Centres
• Queen’s University
• INVISTA (Canada) Co.

• Robinson Innovations
• Goodyear
• Capital Movers
• Scotiabank
• Ontario Power Generation
• RBC
• Scotiabank

Company logos will be displayed on a United Way lamppost banner, where they’ll be right in the sightlines of tens of thousands of downtown motorists and pedestrians.

For information, please contact Maura Doyle at 613-542-2674, ext. 7 or email md Doyle@unitedwaykfla.ca

CAMPAIGN NEWS

Some people beat the heat by jumping in the lake or taking a dip in the pool. But there other folks out there who have learned that the best way to beat the heat is to pretend it’s the fall and hold a United Way fundraising event. Here’s a look at what you’ve been up to:

• You may notice things are more casual around the Kingston Police headquarters. Last week their administrative staff began having dress down Fridays for United Way. Thanks to ECC Antje McNeely.

• The first phase of the LCBO “Give Back Where You Live” campaign wrapped up August 10th. Watch for the second phase to begin on September 25 at an LCBO near you. Remember, a donation at the till helps support local agencies and programs. Thanks to all LCBO employees!

If you like to read, be sure to check out the book sale table at the LCBO Midland Avenue store. They’re also accepting book donations if you have any books you’d like to pass on to a new reader. Way to go ECC Teresa Graham!

• CFB Kingston is hosting their first-ever GamesQuest on October 4th at the CFB Kingston Jr’s Mess, 2 Sadie Avenue. The event includes open gaming, learn to play demos, Warhammer 40K Tournament, Star Wars: X-Wing Tournament, Dungeons & Dragons and much more for just $10 per person or $20 per family!
