

I'm originally from Thunder Bay. I was adopted when I was 6 months and lived in 12 different foster homes. When I was 12 I started couch-surfing the homes of friends, I left for Belleville when I was 16 to move in with my girlfriend. When we broke up I was homeless, and slept in a tent for two years.

At 18, I moved to Kingston and was in and out of the youth shelter and the streets for a few years. I am 20 now, and in transitional/supported housing, I'm no longer on drugs and I work two jobs.

If you are a kid who needs support, there are people who want to help.

Call them at 211.
It's free. 24 hrs/day.

- Dylan,
homeless at age 12