

United Way Leadership Development Services Professional Development Workshops

United Way strengthens the voluntary sector by offering training and workshops to non-profit organizations throughout KFL&A. Leadership Development Services (LDS) public workshops are designed for board members, senior staff, and volunteers, and focus on building capacity and developing skills for effective leaders.

Duties and Liabilities of Directors: How to Protect Yourself

Workshop for Board Members and Senior Administrators

Fee: $10

Date: October 30, 2024

Time: 1:00-3:00pm

Location: Virtual via Zoom

Board members of non-profit organizations and charities are right to be concerned about their personal liability, and need to understand the risks involved in volunteering on a board of directors and how to protect themselves.

At the end of this session, you will be able to:

- Describe the legal structure of your organization and its constitutional documents.
- Identify and describe practices to limit liability.
- Identify and describe the legal duties of the board and of individual directors.

Facilitator: Michael Adams is an associate in the Corporate/Commercial and Real Estate groups at Viner, Kennedy LLP in Kingston, ON. Formerly a Crown attorney and clerk of the Court of Appeal for Saskatchewan, he now specializes in real estate and commercial transactions. Michael holds a law degree from the University of Saskatchewan and began practicing in Ontario after obtaining a Master of Laws from Queen's University in 2018-2019.
